Introduction

This comprehensive glossary aims to provide a reference for anyone interested in terminology used within inclusion, diversity, equity, and accessibility (IDEA).

The language used around IDEA and social justice topics is constantly evolving. Context, connotation, tone, and individual preferences all play a role in what terminology is acceptable. For example, language that is offensive may be reclaimed by the group it was used to harm, the terminology that someone may prefer in reference to themselves may change (e.g., identity-first language or person-first language), or the way a word is used may change to be more inclusive (e.g., gender-neutral language and pronouns). As terminology evolves it is always best practice to ask an individual's preferred way to be addressed.

It is our goal to create a comprehensive and accurate glossary, however there can be definitions that have evolved or have nuances that are missing. The nature of language is such that the meanings of words are often very subjective and based off context. If you notice something that should be added, updated, or removed while engaging with this glossary, please reach out to us at research@ccdi.ca.

General IDEA terminology

Acceptance

Approval and embracing of differences in nationality: race, ethnicity, religion, beliefs, and values beyond simply tolerating them.¹ Contrast with Tolerance.

Accessibility/accessible

A building, facility, structure, program, activity, resource, product etc. that is readily usable, or the extent to which it is readily usable by a person with a disability.^{2 3 4 5}

Accommodation

Adjustments made to policies, programs, practices, facilities, or resources to allow for equitable access in the workplace. Accommodations are made in the hopes of achieving accessibility by eliminating existing barriers.^{6 7}

Duty to accommodate

Employers, organizations, service providers, and public institutions' legal obligation to provide accommodations to individuals for equitable access, so long as the accommodation is reasonable.⁸

Reasonable accommodation

The limit of required accommodations where they are proportionate to what an organization can implement without undue hardship while supporting the needs of the individual.⁹

Advocacy

Speaking up on behalf of a group either as a group member or as someone outside of the group.^{10 11}

Agent of discrimination

Someone who perpetrates discrimination or oppression.¹²

Ally/allyship

Rooted in the term “alliance”, and ally is an individual in a position of privilege or power who makes consistent efforts to understand, uplift, empower, and support equity deserving groups. An ally is not a member of the group, but seeks to stand in solidarity with an equity deserving group to end oppression, discrimination and/or prejudice.^{13 14}

Anti-oppression

Strategies and actions that actively challenge existing intersectional inequities and injustices.¹⁵
¹⁶

Attitudes

Beliefs that influence the behaviour towards and perception of an individual and/or group members.¹⁷

Barrier

Obvious or subtle obstacle(s) that prevents or imposes restriction on members of society from accessing, using, or doing something that others can readily access, use, or do. Can be physical, economic, financial, informational, and/or organizational policies/practices.^{18 19}

Being read

Assumptions about gender identity, sex assigned at birth, or sexual orientation based on an individual’s outward appearance and/or behaviour.²⁰ See also Passing/to pass or blending and Stealth

Bias

The conscious (explicit) or unconscious (implicit) opinion, preference, prejudice, or inclination formed without reasonable justification that prevents a balanced or even-handed judgement.²²

Affinity bias

People's tendency to connect with individuals most like themselves.²³

Confirmation bias

Only noticing or accepting information that aligns with current beliefs.²⁴

Ingroup bias/ingroup favouritism

People's tendency to favour, prefer, and uplift the group that they are a member of.^{25 26}

Outgroup bias

Tendency to view people from outside of one's group unfavourably.²⁷

Bigot/bigotry

Someone who has and upholds a biased attitude or opinion toward an individual or group.²⁸

See also Bias

Brave space

A term that emerged as a concept out of the critiques of safe spaces. A brave space encourages dialogue. It is conceptualized around recognizing differences and holding each person accountable to do the work of sharing experiences and coming to new understandings - a feat that is often hard, and typically uncomfortable.²⁹

Bullying

Repeated behaviours that are intimidating, threatening, degrading, humiliating, or hostile and that physically or psychologically harm the victim.^{30 31 32}

Bystander

A person who witnesses an incident but does not intervene or otherwise take part.³³

Categorization

The process of grouping people based on similar characteristics. Categorization can lead to harmful stereotypes.³⁴

Classism

Discriminatory practices and biases, for or against, based on socioeconomic status.³⁵ See also Socioeconomic privilege

Code-switching

Historically, code switching referred to the process of switching from one language or dialect to another depending on the social context. The term has evolved to refer to the process of changing behaviour, appearance, mannerisms, and/or language to conform to societally appropriate standards for a specific context. Code switching in its modern form is most often performed by members of marginalized groups to avoid being stigmatized and associated with negative stereotypes of their group.^{36 37}

Coming out

The process where someone accepts their gender identity and/or sexual orientation (coming out to themselves) and starts sharing it with other people (coming out to others). Coming out is not a simple or straightforward process, and individuals may be 'out' in some circumstances (with friends and family) but not others (at work or school). Also sometimes referred to as 'coming out of the closet'.^{38 39 40}

Corporate social responsibility (CSR)

Policies and practices where the business is accountable to itself, its stakeholders, and the public while aiming to positively impact the community and the environment.⁴¹

Cultural competence

Awareness and understanding of different cultures and practices, and the ability to accept and bridge differences between cultures for effective communication. Cultural competence has become especially important as globalization increases and individuals must effectively interact with people from other cultures.^{42 43 44}

Cultural intelligence (CQ)

The extent that an individual can adapt to working with different cultures or bridge cultural understandings with empathy and without bias.⁴⁵

Dialogue

Communicating with the goal of expressing different perspectives and coming to multiple understandings without necessarily agreeing.⁴⁶

Discrimination

Intentional or unintentional denial of equal treatment, civil liberties and opportunity to individuals or groups with respect to education, accommodation, health care, employment and access to services, goods and facilities. Can occur based on ancestry, place of origin, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, record of offences, race, colour, nationality, sex, age, religion, gender identity, gender expression, political affiliation, marital or family status, and sexual orientation, physical, developmental, or mental disability.^{47 48}

Individual discrimination

The unequal and prejudiced treatment of individuals based on their identity or membership of a particular group.

Systemic/institutional discrimination

Systemic discrimination is institutionalized. Systemic discrimination is embedded and practiced in social institutions: government, policies, religion, education, and organizations. Results in the exclusion and stereotyping of the targeted groups.⁴⁹

Diversity

Diversity is about the individual. It is about the variety of unique dimensions, qualities, and characteristics we all possess, and the mix that occurs in any group of people.^{50 51} Race, ethnicity, age, gender, sexual orientation, religious beliefs, economic status, physical abilities, life experiences, and other perspectives can make up individual diversity.^{52 53} Diversity is a fact, and inclusion is a choice.⁵⁴

Diversity management

Implementing policies and procedures to create a more inclusive and positive work environment that values the diversity of the workforce.⁵⁵

Dominant group

A group with the power and privilege in society to influence systems. The dominant group can be but is not necessarily always the majority.^{56 57}

Emotional labour

The effort taken to manage emotions to suit a particular context or to be considered socially acceptable. In the context of diversity and inclusion, marginalized groups (particularly racialized people) are often subject to a great deal of emotional labour in the wake of world events or in times of racial tension where discussions of race are more common at work.⁵⁸

Emotional tax

The mental and physical impacts on members of marginalized groups due to constant discomfort that comes with protecting themselves against bias and discrimination.⁵⁹

Employee resource group (ERG)

Employee led groups that serve many purposes depending on the organization, its focus, structure, sector and/or industry. Their primary purpose is to provide equity seeking groups with a formal structure within the organization to support their unique needs.⁶⁰

Employment barriers

The formal or informal policies or practices that result in the restriction or exclusion of marginalized members on factors not related to the job requirement.⁶¹ See also Barrier

Employment equity/affirmative action

Policies and practices that encourage the establishment of working conditions that are free from barriers, seek to correct conditions of disadvantage in employment, and promote the principle that it requires special measures to accommodate differences for the four designated groups in Canada: women, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities, members of visible minorities⁶².

Equality

Where everyone is treated the same regardless of individual diversity and needs.⁶³

Equal pay for equal work

Refers to equal pay provisions in employment standards legislation and addresses situations where men and women are performing the same or comparable jobs. Equal pay for equal work takes skill, effort, responsibilities, and working conditions into consideration when determining comparable jobs.⁶⁴ Contrast with Pay equity

Equity

Where everyone is treated according to their diverse needs in a way that enables all people to participate, perform, and engage to the same extent.⁶⁵

Equity-seeking groups/equity-deserving groups

Groups of people who have been historically disadvantaged and underrepresented. These groups include but are not limited to the four designated groups in Canada – women, visible minorities, Aboriginal Peoples, and people with disabilities – and people in the LGTBQ2+ community/people with diverse gender identities and sexual orientations. Equity-seeking groups identify barriers and unequal access, and actively seek social justice and reparation.^{66 67} See also Marginalized groups

Essentialism

The belief that an entire group naturally possesses the same characteristics, ignoring individual differences within the group (e.g., the belief that there is a gender gap in certain industries because women are not interested in those jobs). Can lead to stereotypes.⁶⁸ Other, more specific terms include gender essentialism and cultural essentialism.

Exclusion

The denial of access or leaving someone out either consciously or unconsciously.⁶⁹

Fairness

Processes and outcomes that are impartial.⁷⁰

Harassment

Unwelcome comments or behaviours based on protected grounds that offend or humiliate the victim. Harassment is a form of discrimination.^{71 72 73 74}

Hate crimes

Targeted violence against a marginalized group.⁷⁵

Human rights

Basic rights that all people are entitled to. The Canadian Human Rights Act, the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, and the provincial human rights legislations outline the rights that Canadians are entitled to.⁷⁶ The Universal Declaration of Human Rights from the United Nations governs the national and provincial human rights legislation.⁷⁷

Inclusion

Inclusion is creating a culture that embraces, respects, accepts, and values diversity.⁷⁸ It is a mindful and equitable effort to meet individual needs so everyone feels valued, respected, and

Intent vs. impact

The distinction between someone's intent (what they meant to do) and their impact (its effect on someone else).⁸²

Intergenerational trauma

The trauma experienced and inherited through generations. Research has found that trauma can be passed down genetically through changes in DNA expression, socially through traumatic events affecting social interactions, or structurally through the continued marginalization of the traumatized groups. Intergenerational trauma has been found to affect the families of holocaust survivors, residential school survivors, refugees, and other groups who experienced traumatic events.^{83 84}

Internalized dominance

Where individuals unconsciously believe they are superior or inferior to other groups due to systemic inequalities and social conditioning.⁸⁵

Internalized oppression

Occurs when marginalized groups accept negative messages of the dominant group towards themselves and assume a victim role due to repeated mistreatment – racism, exclusion, or discrimination.⁸⁶

Intersectionality

A term coined by Dr. Kimberlé Crenshaw to describe how social identities may overlap to create compounding barriers for individuals. It is described as a framework for approaching issues from multiple perspectives and understanding how multiple groups, or individuals with multiple identities, may be affected. For example, approaching feminism with an intersectional lens

LGBTQ2+/LGBTQ2S+ and other acronyms

LGBTQ2+/LGBTQ2S+ is an acronym that stands for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Questioning, and Two-Spirit.⁹¹ A plus sign or asterisk added to any acronym indicates the inclusion of identities not explicitly included in the acronym. There are many acronyms that may be preferred by different individuals. The following is a comprehensive but incomplete list of acronyms:

- LGBT: Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender.⁹²
- LGBTQIA: Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer and/or Questioning, Intersex, and Asexual and/or Ally.⁹³
- LGBTIQAPD: Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer and/or Questioning, Intersex, Asexual and/or Ally, Pansexual, and Demisexual.⁹⁴
- LGBT*IQ: Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans*, Intersex, and Queer and/or Questioning.
- QTIPOC: Queer, Trans, and Intersex People of Colour. The term acknowledges the intersectionality of race, gender, and sexual orientation. Other terms include QTIBIPOC (Queer, Trans, and Intersex, Black and Indigenous People of Colour), QPOC (Queer People of Colour), and QTPOC (Queer and/or Trans People of Colour).⁹⁵
- QUILTBAG: Queer and/or Questioning, Undecided, Intersex, Lesbian, Trans*, Asexual, Two-Spirit, Bisexual and/or Allied and Gay and/or Genderqueer.⁹⁶
- SGL: Same Gender Loving. This is a term sometimes used by the Black community to express their sexual orientation without relying on terms and symbols of European descent.⁹⁷
- SOGI: Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity. This term is most often used within the United Nations and international human rights context and is inclusive of all sexual orientations and gender identities.⁹⁸

- TGNC/TGNCNB: Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming. “NB” may be added for non-binary identities.¹⁰⁰

Marginalized groups

Members of society that face exclusion due to societal and systemic barriers.^{101 102} See also Equity-seeking groups/equity-deserving groups and Under-represented minorities \(URM\)/under-represented groups \(URG\)

Merit

Assessment made based on a clear definition of someone’s knowledge, experience, and ability through formal evaluation of performance and achievement. Merit is often used to evaluate for promotions or hiring.^{103 104} See also Meritocracy.

Meritocracy

A workplace that claims career decisions (e.g., pay, promotions, hiring) are based exclusively on merit, and that race, gender, or other differences do not influence decisions.^{105 106}

Microaffirmation

Small gesture of inclusion, caring, or kindness by being an ally and valuing or uplifting contributions by all individuals. Attained by actively listening and providing a comfort and support to marginalized individuals.¹⁰⁷

Microaggression

Small interactions with people or the environment that expose bias towards marginalized groups. While microaggressions may be unintentional, they can have cumulative negative effects on an individual’s well-being and sense of belonging. Examples include asking a person

Multiplicity

Having multiple social identities (e.g., being female, Black, and straight).¹¹²

Norm

Behaviors or characteristics of a group that are considered societal standards.¹¹³

Oppression

The unfair treatment or control of marginalized groups to maintain status, privilege, or power.¹¹⁴

Outing someone

Revealing someone else’s gender identity or sexual orientation to others without their permission. This can be done accidentally or intentionally, both of which can be extremely harmful to the person who is ‘outed’.^{115 116} See also Coming out

Passing/to pass or blending

Refers to a LGBTQ2+ person perceived as cisgender and/or heterosexual or being not visibly LGBTQ2+. Passing or blending is important to some people, but not to others. It may be done purposefully for safety or other reasons, or inadvertently. The use of ‘passing’ is sometimes disputed as it implies that it is a goal to be achieved. Passing can also refer to someone who could be perceived to be a race or ethnicity that they are not based on appearance.¹¹⁷ See also White passing

Pay equity

Equal pay for work of equal value. The goal of the Pay Equity Act is to ensure and enforce that jobs traditionally performed by women are paid fairly when compared to jobs of comparable value that are traditionally performed by men. The value of these jobs is determined by skill, effort, responsibilities, and working conditions.¹¹⁸ Contrast with Equal pay for equal work

Performative allyship

When someone who is not a member of an equity seeking group expresses support for a group in a way that is not helpful or could even be harmful. People engaged in performative allyship do not acknowledge personal responsibility in or take meaningful action against the systemic issues faced by the equity seeking group.¹¹⁹ Contrast with Allyship

Power

Unequally distributed access to privileges such as information, opportunity, and resources, and the ability to influence decisions, rules, standards, and policies to benefit oneself or one's social group. Power, and the level of power possessed by any individual or group, affects their ability to live comfortable, safe lives. Power is relational and it works between individuals, cultures, institutions, and social groups.^{120 121 122}

Prejudice

Pre-judgement or negative assumptions made about an individual or social group based on stereotypes rather than experiences. Prejudicial attitudes prevent equal treatment and lead to discrimination.^{123 124}

Privilege

Unearned access, benefits, and opportunities possessed by members of a social group with a high level of power (e.g., white privilege, male privilege, cisgender privilege). Privilege occurs when structures and institutions have been historically designed for the benefit of or to be accessed by a particular group.^{125 126}

Prohibited grounds/protected grounds

Personal characteristics defined in human rights legislation that are legally protected from discrimination.¹²⁷ Prohibited grounds are defined in the Canadian Human Rights Act as race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, family status, genetic characteristics, disability, and conviction for an

Psychological safety

The feeling of being safe to express ideas, feelings, and questions or to make mistakes without repercussions.^{129 130}

Questioning

Someone who is in the process of exploring their gender identity or sexual orientation, but who does not identify with a specific label.^{131 132}

Reclaimed language

Words that were used offensively to describe a community but has been reclaimed by members of that community for their own use. Reclaimed language is generally still harmful and offensive when used outside of the community. Language is reclaimed as a form of empowerment, to take the negative power out of the word, and to claim the community's space. Examples include 'dyke,' 'fag,' 'homo,' 'queen,' and 'queer'.¹³³

Reverse discrimination

The belief that members of equity seeking groups receive unfair advantages as a result of diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives, and that these programs create barriers for members of a dominant group. Discrimination based on a protected ground can happen to anyone regardless of their social position and is prohibited by human rights legislation, but this term is most often used by opponents of equity initiatives.^{134 135}

Safe space

A "safe space" is a space where people feel psychologically safe and can express honest impressions, thoughts, and attitudes without fear of ridicule. A safe space is one that doesn't incite judgement based on identity or experience – where the expression of both can exist and be affirmed without fear of repercussion and without the pressure to educate.¹³⁶ A safe space

Discrimination based on beliefs and stereotypes related to a person's body size.¹³⁸

Social justice

The view that all people should have equitable access to resources, opportunities, and human rights. Social justice is actions taken towards addressing the root cause of inequities and is rooted in the belief that all people are equal in value.^{139 140}

Socioeconomic privilege

Benefits available to an individual due to their income, education, and level of financial security as well as perceptions of class and status based on these factors (socioeconomic status).¹⁴¹ See also Classism

Stakeholder capitalism

The idea that companies should consider all stakeholders (employees, customers, suppliers, etc.) for the long-term benefit of the organization and society.¹⁴²

Stereotype

An assumption about a certain group, and the notion that the assumption applies to all members of the group. Stereotypes can be positive but are generally negative and ignore the diversity that exists within a group.¹⁴³

Stereotype threat

A theory that describes the experience of a member of a stereotyped group when they feel the risk of being negatively evaluated based on their group membership and a desire to avoid confirming a stereotype. The negative feelings and stress caused by stereotype threat can impact how someone performs.^{144 145}

Supplier diversity

Providing diverse suppliers with equal access. Actively seeking out diversity in the supply chain network of the organization and maintaining relationships with diverse suppliers through inclusive practices.¹⁴⁶

Systemic barrier

Policies, practices, or behaviours in society that exclude marginalized groups.¹⁴⁷

Tokenism

Focusing on limited representation of equity-seeking groups for the appearance of being inclusive without any action towards meaningful inclusion.^{148 149 150}

Tolerance

Setting aside differences in culture, beliefs, or values without necessarily embracing or agreeing with them.^{151 152} Contrast with Acceptance

Trigger

Something that causes a distressing reaction and affects your emotional and mental state. A trigger can bring up traumatic memories and influence behaviour.¹⁵³

Trigger warning

A statement that comes before presenting content that could potentially cause a distressing reaction.¹⁵⁴

Under-represented minorities (URM)/under-represented groups (URG)

Groups that are not proportionally represented in positions of economic influence and leadership, including on corporate boards and in senior management. These groups include women, racialized persons, those who identify as LGBTQ2+, First Nations, Inuit and Métis Peoples, and people with disabilities.¹⁵⁵ See also Equity-seeking groups/equity-deserving groups and Marginalized groups

Using “x”

Terms like “womxn”, “folx”, and “Latinx” are sometimes used by individuals and organizations to signify inclusivity in spaces and practices, or to remove gendered assumptions. The use of x in these ways is contested, as some find it performative or even exclusionary.¹⁵⁷ Further reading is recommended before using these terms.¹⁵⁸

Workplace inclusion

Intentional work to create feelings of belonging for all employees so they feel comfortable to contribute and perform at their best.¹⁵⁹ See also Inclusion

Age

Adultism

Discrimination or exclusion of young people based on the belief that younger people are less valuable or less capable.¹⁶⁰

Ageism

Discrimination or exclusion based on age, generally referring to discrimination against people who are older.^{161 162}

Generations

Groups of people born in specific time frames set based on historical events, historic birth rates, and other factors. Generations are often assumed to have similar shared experiences, ideals, and attitudes, leading to the application of generalizations and stereotypes based on generation.¹⁶³ The current generations are described below.¹⁶⁴

Silent generation

People born between 1925 to ~1945. People of the silent generation were children during the Great Depression and World War II.^{165 166 167}

Baby boomers

People born between ~1946 to 1964 when the birthrate in Canada and other countries grew rapidly after World War II. Baby boomers make up a large portion of the current workforce and are reaching retirement age.^{168 169 170}

Generation X

People born between 1965 to 1980, when Canada's birthrate slowed after the baby boom. The portion of this generation born between 1966 and 1971 are sometimes referred to as 'baby busters'.^{171 172 173}

Millennials

People born between ~1981 to ~1996. Millennials are the children of baby boomers and grew up throughout the rise of technology.^{174 175 176}

Generation Z

People born between ~1997 to ~2011. This generation is most emphasized by the existence of social media throughout their lives.^{177 178 179}

¹⁶³ The Conversation

¹⁶⁴ Note: The exact time frame for the generations varies, particularly with generation x, millennials, generation z, and generation alpha. Contested dates are noted with "~".

Generation alpha

People born between ~2010 to 2025. Generation alpha is the most recent cohort and are the children of millennials.^{180 181}

Gender & gender identity

Note: Some of these terms are offensive, and some have been reclaimed for use within the communities that they belong to. They are included here for informational purposes. See Reclaimed language

Agender

Someone who does not identify with any gender or does not see themselves as aligning with all or any masculine or feminine characteristics.^{182 183} Other terms include gender neutrois, gender neutral, or genderless.¹⁸⁴

Androgynous

Someone who identifies outside of the gender binary, who's gender expression is outside of the gender binary, or who identifies with both feminine and masculine characteristics. This is no longer a frequently used term as it often refers to AFAB women who are masculine-presenting.¹⁸⁵

Assigned female at birth (AFAB)/assigned male at birth (AMAB)

These terms are used to describe someone's gender assigned at birth and were created to acknowledge arbitrary assignments of gender.¹⁸⁶

Bigender

Someone who moves between masculine and feminine identities or characteristics. They may sometimes identify as a man and sometimes as a woman.¹⁸⁷

Butch

A term used within the LGBTQ2+ community to describe masculine gender expression or behaviour. This term is generally offensive and has been reclaimed by the community.¹⁸⁸

Ciscentrism/cisnormativity

The assumption by individuals or society that everyone is cisgender, that cisgender is the default, 'normal', or superior.^{189 190} See also Cissexism

Cisgender

The gender identity of someone who identifies with the same gender assigned to them at birth. The term is often shortened to 'cis'.^{191 192 193}

Cissexism

Actions that discriminate against or exclude transgender people based on the belief that cisgender is what is 'normal' or superior.^{194 195} See also Ciscentrism/cisnormativity

Cissexual

Someone who identifies with the same sex assigned to them at birth. Not commonly used.¹⁹⁶ See also Cisgender

Congruence

A feeling of harmony with all dimensions of one's gender.¹⁹⁷ See also Dimensions of gender

Cross-dresser

Someone who wears clothing associated with a different gender. Some people who cross-dress are trans while others are not. Cross-dressing is done privately or publicly, and some of the time or all of the time. Cross-dresser has replaced the term 'transvestite' but is considered offensive.¹⁹⁸

Dead name

The name that a person was given when they were born but they no longer use, usually a trans or non-binary person. Some people use the term 'birth name', but the word 'dead' is used to emphasize the seriousness of not using the person's birth name. Use of someone's 'dead name' is offensive and, in the case of a trans person, generally misgenders them.¹⁹⁹

Dimensions of gender

Gender is shaped by our body, identity, and social gender (how others see our gender). These dimensions are related but separate and can vary.²⁰⁰

Demigender

Someone who identifies in part with a specific gender.²⁰¹

Drag performers

People who dress in ways that exaggerate gender stereotypes, typically for performances and entertainment. Drag performers include Drag Queens, Drag Kings (women performing as men), and Performers.²⁰² Female drag queens may be referred to as "bio [biological] queens" or "faux queens", but some find this terminology offensive.²⁰³

Female-to-male spectrum (FTM)

Someone who was assigned female at birth and identifies as a man. Other terms include 'transitioning to male' and 'trans man'.²⁰⁴

Feminine-presenting/masculine-presenting

Someone who expresses gender in a feminine or masculine way. Separate from gender identity, this refers to the way gender is expressed.²⁰⁵ See also Gender expression

Feminism

The belief in social, economic, and political equality of the sexes.²⁰⁶

Femme

Someone who identifies in a feminine way, or who is feminine-presenting, through behaviour, gender roles, relationship roles, appearance, or identity.^{207 208}

Gender

The socially constructed ideas about the behavior, actions, and performed by a particular sex. Gender is fundamentally different from sex assigned at birth.²⁰⁹

Gender affirming

A broad description of actions or behaviours that validate someone's gender, such as using someone's correct pronouns (gender affirming language).²¹⁰

Gender affirming garments

Clothing items that help someone feel more aligned with their gender. Examples include binders (a garment that restricts the chest), bras and breast forms, wigs, or any clothing associated with the gender with which they identify.²¹¹

Gender attribution/gender perception

Assumptions about gender based on an individual's outward appearance and/or behaviour.²¹²
See also Being read and Passing/to pass or blending

Gender bending

Dressing or behaving in a way that counters traditional masculine or feminine characteristics.²¹³

Gender binary

The concept that there are only two genders, that those genders are opposite and distinct, and that everyone belongs to one of the two.^{214 215}

Gender dysphoria

A medical term in the DSM-5 (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders) that replaced gender identity disorder (GID). The term describes internal feelings of conflict in a person whose gender identity does not align with the gender they were assigned at birth. GID is no longer used and is considered offensive due to the implication that a trans person has a disorder. Gender dysphoria is generally less offensive but is still contested.^{216 217}

Gender expansive

Someone who identifies with a broader and more flexible concept of gender. Can be an umbrella term for someone who is exploring their gender expression and/ or gender identity.²¹⁸

Gender expression

How someone publicly shows or presents their gender through their appearance, name, preferred pronouns, speech, and behaviour. Gender expression can align with gender identity but is separate.^{219 220 221}

Gender identity

How someone internally, mentally, or psychologically perceives their gender. Someone's gender identity can align with or differ from the gender they were assigned at birth. A person's gender identity can change over time as they learn about themselves and learn more terminology. Gender identity is distinct from biological sex.^{222 223 224} See also Gender expression

Gender neutral language

Language that does not assume or assign a gender.

Examples:

- 'Thanks, friends' instead of 'thanks, guys'
- 'Partner' instead of 'husband' or 'wife'
- Gender neutral pronouns like 'they' instead of 'he' or 'she'²²⁵

Gender non-conforming (GNC)

An umbrella term for someone who identifies or expresses themselves outside of the gender binary.²²⁶ The term may refer to someone who identifies as trans or it may not.²²⁷

Gender norms

Behaviour, appearance, and roles that society considers acceptable for men and women. Gender norms are heavily influenced by the gender binary and contribute to power imbalances and gender inequality.

Gender policing

Imposing cishnormative beliefs on someone who does not express themselves within the gender binary or who does not fit within prescribed gender norms. Gender policing occurs through harassment or violence, exclusionary laws, and social messaging.²²⁸ See also Cissexism

Gender roles

Social and cultural expectations placed on an individual based on their sex assigned at birth. Gender roles vary greatly within different cultures.^{229 230}

Gender spectrum

The representation of gender as a continuum rather than a binary concept, including all gender identities and expressions.

Genderfluid

Someone who does not have a fixed gender identity. They may move between many gender identities and expressions.^{231 232}

Genderqueer

An umbrella term for someone who identifies or expresses themselves outside of the gender binary or who does not follow gender stereotypes.^{233 234} See also Gender non-conforming \(GNC\) and Non-binary \(NB\)

Indigiqueer

An identity term that may be used by someone who is both Indigenous and queer that emphasizes the intersections of both identities. The term is described by Joshua Whitehead, a Two-Spirit, Oji-nêhiyaw Indigiqueer scholar from Peguis First Nation who popularized the term, as “a braiding of two bridges”²³⁵ - indigeneity and queerness - and “the forward moving

Intersex

Someone who is born with anatomy, hormones, or genetic make-up that differs from the general medical definitions of male and female. Someone who is intersex may have one or more of a variety of differences that are usually of no medical risk. They are generally assigned a gender at birth by their doctors and family, but this is becoming an outdated approach. Intersex people may identify with the trans community, but also may not. The term ‘hermaphrodite’ was previously in use but is now outdated and offensive.^{239 240 241}

Male-to-female spectrum (MTF)

Someone who was assigned male at birth and identifies as a woman. Other terms include ‘transitioning to female’ and ‘trans woman’.²⁴²

Masc

Someone who identifies in a masculine way, or who is masculine-presenting, through behaviour, gender roles, relationship roles, appearance, or identity.²⁴³

Misgender

The act of referring to someone, intentionally or not, with a term that does not align with their gender identity. This includes using the wrong pronouns, using a trans person’s dead name, or using a gendered term (sir or ma’am, husband or wife, etc.).²⁴⁴

Misogyny

The belief that masculinity and maleness is more desirable, superior, more powerful, and/or dominant.²⁴⁵

Mx.

A gender-neutral prefix that replaces Mr., Mrs., Ms., etc. Generally used by those who identify outside of the gender binary. The term is pronounced like 'mix'.²⁴⁶

Neo-pronouns

Pronouns that are gender neutral. These pronouns are preferred by some non-binary and gender diverse people and may be used by those who are not comfortable using the plural 'they/them' as gender neutral pronouns. Examples include ze/zir and ey/em.²⁴⁷ Pronunciation varies, so it is best to ask the person who is using them.²⁴⁸

Non-binary (NB)

A way of identifying and/or expressing oneself outside the binary gender categories of male/masculine and female/feminine. Non-binary identities exist on and off the gender spectrum, and it can be a specific or umbrella term.²⁴⁹

Oppositional sexism

The concept that masculinity and femininity are opposite and distinct, and that men should only be masculine, and women should only be feminine.²⁵⁰

Pangender

A gender identity that a person may use if they don't identify with just one gender.²⁵¹

Patriarchy

Societal structures that exist where men hold the majority of the power and control, and masculinity and maleness are perceived as superior.²⁵²

Preferred gender pronouns (PGPs)

An outdated term that refers to the pronouns that align with someone's gender identity.²⁵³ Pronouns are not a preference, but a fact. This term should be replaced by using only the word pronouns.²⁵⁴

Sex/biological sex

The medical term based on physical characteristics and anatomy used to designate people as male, female, or intersex. Biological sex is distinct from gender identity.^{256 257 258} See also Sex assigned at birth

Sex assigned at birth (SAAB)

Describes the sex, separate from gender identity, that someone was given at birth based on their external anatomy. Other terms include designated sex at birth (DSAB) and sex coercively assigned at birth (SCAB).^{259 260}

Sex reassignment surgery (SRS)

A term used in medicine to describe surgeries people undergo to alter their sex. There are multiple surgeries that fall under this category, and they are often referred to as ‘top surgery’ and ‘bottom surgery’ to avoid having to go into detail. ‘Gender confirmation surgery’ is often a preferred term.²⁶¹

Stealth

Someone who is trans but who is not ‘out’, and is not known by others to be trans.²⁶² See also Passing/to pass or blending

Third gender

Someone who does not identify as a man or a woman, specifically in cultures that recognize the existence of multiple genders (e.g., Indigenous cultures in regions of Mexico, Samoa, and Madagascar). Each culture has its own word to describe this third gender (e.g., Fa’Afa’ines in Samoa and Hijras in South Asia).^{263 264}

Traditional sexism

The belief that masculinity and maleness are superior to femininity and femaleness.²⁶⁵

Trans*

An umbrella term for people who do not identify with the gender binary, that includes non-binary, gender non-conforming, and transgender individuals. The asterisk is used in written communication to indicate inclusivity.²⁶⁶

Trans man

Someone who was assigned female at birth and identifies as male. They may be at any point along their transition or may not be transitioning at all. Some people prefer to be referred to as a trans man, whereas some may prefer to be referred to as a man.²⁶⁷

Trans woman

Someone who was assigned male at birth and identifies as female. They may be at any point along their transition or may not be transitioning at all. Some people prefer to be referred to as a trans woman, whereas some may prefer to be referred to as a woman.²⁶⁸

Transfeminine

Someone who is trans and identifies or presents as feminine.²⁶⁹

Transgender

An umbrella term used to describe a person whose gender identity is anything other than their sex assigned at birth. The term is also used more narrowly to describe someone who identifies as or is transitioning/has transitioned to the 'opposite' sex. May be shortened to 'trans'.^{270 271 272}

Transition

The process of changing one's gender expression to align with their gender identity. Transition is not a linear process and is a deeply personal experience. There are four general aspects of transition:

1. Social: name, pronouns, clothing, hair, etc.
2. Medical: hormone therapy

3. Surgical: gender affirming surgeries
4. Legal: changing legal identification, birth certificate, driver's license, passport, etc.

It is important to understand that the transition process can vary greatly from person to person, there is no set start or end point, and a person does not need to do all four steps to transition. The term 'transition' can also be misleading as a person is not changing their gender, they are changing their bodies and appearance to align with their already existing gender identity.^{273 274 275}

Transmasculine

Someone who is trans and identifies or presents as masculine.²⁷⁶

Transmisogyny

Transphobia that is based on misogyny, or the idea that masculinity and maleness is superior, targeted at trans women and transfeminine people.²⁷⁷

Transphobia

Fear, dislike, or hatred of and discrimination against trans* people. Transphobia exists through offensive jokes, exclusion, denial of services, employment discrimination, intentional misgendering, harassment, and violence.^{278 279}

Transsexual

Used in different ways, transsexual can refer to someone who identifies with a gender or sex other than the one assigned at birth. It may refer to someone who wishes to or has transitioned hormonally and surgically. It is sometimes used inaccurately or offensively, and 'transgender' or 'trans' are often preferred.^{280 281 282}

Transvestite

An outdated medical term used to associate cross-dressing with mental illness and sexual perversion. This is generally an offensive term.^{283 284}

Two-Spirit (2-Spirit)

Two-Spirit was a term introduced by Elder Myra Laramée in 1990 at the third annual Native American and Canadian Aboriginal LGBT people gathering in Winnipeg.²⁸⁵ It is “an English umbrella term to reflect and restore Indigenous traditions forcefully suppressed by colonization, honouring the fluid and diverse nature of gender and attraction and its connection to community and spirituality. It is used by some Indigenous People rather than, or in addition to, identifying as LGBTQI”.²⁸⁶ The teachings, roles, and responsibilities for a Two-Spirit person differs from community to community. Not all queer Indigenous people use this term, but Two-Spirit is an identity specific to being Indigenous and can only be claimed by Indigenous people.²⁸⁷ For more information, see https://www.outsaskatoon.ca/two_spirit1.

Physical & mental ability

Note: It is generally accepted in disability communities that disabled and disability are not bad words, and that euphemisms for these words should be avoided. See Diversability and Differently abled. An excellent resource for appropriate use of disability terminology, beyond what is described in this glossary, is the National Center for Disability and Journalism’s Style Guide, which can be found here. See our note on using preferred language in the introduction.

Ability

Having the mental and/or physical capacity to do a task or activity, such as walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, job functions, self-care activities, etc.²⁸⁸

Able-bodied

Someone who does not have a physical disability. It is important to note that able-bodied is not the opposite of disabled, and the preferred antonym is ‘non-disabled’.²⁸⁹

Ableism

Discrimination or exclusion based on conscious or unconscious beliefs that people with disabilities are less valuable, and therefore less able to contribute and participate in society. Ableism may be embedded in institutions and can limit opportunities and inclusion of persons with disabilities in community and corporate life.²⁹⁰

Alt attribute

Alternative text provided with an image that improves accessibility of digital information. Alt attributes are useful for people who are blind or low vision who use screen readers, or someone with a slow internet connection where images may fail to load.²⁹²

Assistive technology/adaptive technology

Devices, equipment, software, and hardware that are used by people with disabilities to assist them with tasks and activities. These technologies can be used to adapt or replace existing equipment. Examples include wheelchairs, walkers, prosthetics, hearing aids, computer-based equipment, closed captioning, braille, screen readers, etc.^{293 294 295 296} For a more comprehensive list of assistive technologies, visit: <https://mn.gov/admin/at/getting-started/understanding-at/types/>

Augmentative and alternative communication

Communicating in ways outside of speech. Can be aided (e.g., computer-based systems that read typed words out loud) or unaided (e.g., sign language).^{297 298}

Blind

A general term describing vision loss that interferes with daily activities, including the total inability to see. Blindness does not necessarily mean that someone only sees complete darkness.²⁹⁹

A psychiatric diagnostic manual containing standardized criteria for the diagnosis of mental illnesses. The manual is currently on version 5.³⁰⁷

Differently abled

A term coined in the 1990s as an alternative to “disabled” and other terms. This term should not be used as it is considered offensive and condescending.³⁰⁸

Digital divide

Gaps in access to information and communications technology experienced by people, groups, regions, and countries. People with disabilities are more heavily affected by the digital divide due to physical barriers, inaccessible technology, and inaccessible design.³⁰⁹

Disability

Refers to a broad range of medical conditions an individual can have from birth, due to an accident, or developed over time, which impact an individual's ability to function.³¹⁰

Examples of disabilities include, but are not limited to:

- Addiction (e.g., alcohol, drugs, gambling)³¹¹
- Developmental disability (e.g., autism, ADHD, Down syndrome)^{312 313}
- Health disability (e.g., diabetes, cancer, asthma)³¹⁴
- Learning disability (e.g., dyslexia, dysnomia)^{315 316}
- Mental health condition/mental illness (e.g., schizophrenia, depression, anxiety disorder, bipolar disorder)³¹⁷
- Physical disability (e.g., cerebral palsy, spinal cord injury, amputation)
- Sensory disability (e.g., hearing or vision loss)

Disability culture

A group identity shared by people with disabilities who have a history of discrimination.³¹⁸

Disability etiquette

Recommendations on physical contact and language/terminology use when non-disabled people interact or engage with people with disabilities.³¹⁹

Disabled

Someone with physical, psychological, or neurological differences that limit their capacity to do a task or activity, such as walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, job functions, self-care activities, etc. Many people with disabilities will refer to themselves or prefer to be referred to as disabled.³²¹ See also Identity-first language and Person-first language

Disclosure of disability

When someone with a disability shares information about their disability with other people, particularly at work. Someone may disclose their disability to request an accommodation or in more casual conversation.^{322 323}

Diversability

A term coined by Tiffany Yu, founder of the organization Diversability, to showcase the diversity within disability. The organization does not suggest that the term “diversability” should replace “disability”, and it is recommended to avoid the use of the term in such a way.^{324 325}

Environmental barrier

An obstacle that prevents buildings or other locations from being readily accessible to people with disabilities. (e.g., stairs).³²⁶

Functioning

A general term for an individual’s level of ability to participate in daily activities.³²⁷

Handicap

Anything that prevents or limits a person’s success in a task or activity. A disability, or a lack of accessibility, can be the reason for a handicap, but the provision of accommodations, assistive technology, and other supports can reduce or eliminate a handicap for someone with a disability. Hard of hearing

When someone has hearing loss where some hearing exists and an assistive device such as a hearing aid is sufficient for them to understand speech.³³¹

Hearing impaired

Having partial to total inability to hear.³³² See also Deaf and Hard of hearing

Hearing loss

A broad term describing a range of hearing function, from partial to total inability to hear in one or both ears.^{333 334}

Identity-first language

Language use that places the disability identity first. For example, 'disabled person' instead of 'person with a disability'. Identity-first language is preferred by many people with disabilities, particularly those who view their disability as an important part of their identity. However, it is best to only use this type of language if you know that it is what the person prefers.³³⁵ Contrast with Person-first language

Impairment

An apparent, hidden, inherited, self-inflicted, or acquired physical, sensory, intellectual, learning, or medical condition that limits the functioning ability of an individual. An individual who is impaired requires an accommodation.³³⁶

Inspiration porn

Used as a disparaging term within disability culture to describe the tokenization of someone with a disability as a portrait of success.³³⁷

An animal, most commonly a dog, that is trained to do specific tasks that help a person with a disability participate safely in activities.³⁵²

Self-identification

Someone telling their employer or potential employer that they have a disability through voluntary forms completed during application, onboarding, or for organizational diversity initiatives.^{353 354}

Sign language/signing

Communication using a language made up of 'signs' or gestures done with the hands. Sign language is commonly used by people who are deaf and can also be used by people with other disabilities that affect verbal communication.^{355 356}

Spoon theory/'spoons'

A method of explaining the concept that someone with a disability may have a limited amount of energy in a day to perform tasks and activities. The metaphor is having a fistful of spoons, where the spoons represent energy, with each task removing a spoon, and therefore depleting the person's allotted amount of energy. An outdated racial classification term that originally referred to the peoples of the Caucasus region that spans between Europe and Asia. The term evolved in meaning to describe people who are white. This term should be avoided and can generally be replaced with “white”.^{390 391 392}

Colonialism/Colonization

The practice of domination where one nation occupies land for the purpose of subjugating, conquering, and exploiting the colonized territory and its people.^{393 394 395 396}

Settler colonialism

The long-term forced physical occupation of lands by a non-Indigenous population. Settler colonialism involves the imposition of the colonizer’s identity including their language, culture, and religion while erasing the identity of the colonized people.^{397 398}

Decolonization

An ongoing process that aims to deconstruct settler colonial ideologies such as white supremacy, give value to Indigenous knowledge, and dismantle power imbalances. Decolonization is the active work to give back the colonized territory’s independence and undo the effects of colonialism on the social, political, and economic aspects of a people’s life.³⁹⁹

Colourism/shadism

The discriminatory practice of preferring people with fair or lighter skin over dark skin. Colourism/shadism is based on European beauty standards and is rooted in racism. Also practiced by members of the same racial and ethnic group.^{400 401 402}

Critical race theory (CRT)

An intellectual movement and framework used to analyze policies, practices, institutions, and systems to uncover the ways that they create and maintain racial inequality. CRT asserts that racism is an everyday experience for people of colour, race is socially constructed for the purpose of oppression, institutions are inherently racist, and society is largely uninterested in remedying institutional racism.^{403 404 405}

Cultural appropriation

The theft of cultural elements or objects from equity seeking groups for use, commodification, or profit without understanding the cultural significance and historical context.^{406 407 408}

Cultural assimilation

Giving up of one's culture, values, and behaviors, to adapt to or blend into the dominant culture's social and cultural practices.^{409 410}

Cultural pluralism

The ability of minority groups to maintain their cultural uniqueness and within a larger society.^{411 412}

Cultural racism

The portrayal and association of minority cultures with negative stereotypes that perpetuate the belief that the dominant culture is superior.⁴¹³

Environmental racism

The intentional disposal of toxic waste into or near marginalized communities. This toxic waste further impacts marginalized communities and their inhabitants by making them more susceptible to chronic illnesses.^{416 417}

Ethnicity

A socially defined category describing a group of people that share a common culture, tradition, language, history, geography, religion, and racial identity.^{418 419}

Ethnocentrism

The view that your own cultural group is superior and to judge other cultures based on that standard.⁴²⁰

Eurocentrism

A cultural phenomenon that considers the European or Western nations as being more civilized and superior. Eurocentrism evaluates non-Western societies from a Western perspective.^{421 422}

Hispanic

A term used to identify a person from a Spanish speaking country, primarily in Latin America, irrespective of other racial or ethnic factors. Some former Spanish colonies, such as Equatorial Guinea, are also Spanish speaking and considered Hispanic.^{423 424} See also Latino/Latina and Afro-Latino

Race

Race is not biological. It is a social construct. When social constructs lead us to ascribe meanings to people's identities, this can lead to unconscious bias, stereotypes, racism, and racial discrimination. Racism is a systemic form of oppression based on social constructs.^{438 439}

Race relations

The quality and pattern of interactions between diverse racial groups. There are two components of race relations: the elimination of racial intolerance and the removal of systemic racial disadvantages.⁴⁴⁰

Racial colourblindness

A racial ideology where a person chooses to not see race and/or skin colour. Colourblindness leads to a dismissal of the lived experiences of people of colour, inequities, history of violence and current perpetuated trauma in our society.^{441 442}

Racial identity/ethnic identity

Awareness of one's racial and ethnic group based on biological heritage, physical appearance, cultural affiliation, early socialization, and personal experience.⁴⁴³

Racial inequity

When different racial groups have different levels of power and privilege in a society.⁴⁴⁴

Racial reconciliation

Rebuilding relationships between minority groups and the institutions that harmed them. Reconciliation can be achieved through three key steps: recognizing systemic and institutional racism and their effects, engaging in dialogue (empowering minorities), and working towards restorative justice.^{448 449}

Racialization

The social categorization of people as part of a particular race and the unequal treatment of that racial group. Racialization relies on social markers such as a person's skin colour, language, cultural habits, religion etc. to label and stereotype them.^{450 451}

Racialized persons/racialized group

An alternative term for visible minority used to identify non-white racial groups. This term is preferred over visible minority as a racialized group is not necessarily in the minority, the term does not place "whiteness" as the default, and it acknowledges race as a social construct with negative effects.^{452 453}

Racism

A systemic form of oppression based on the social construct of race.⁴⁵⁴

Individual racism

Racial discrimination that stems from conscious or unconscious individual beliefs, attitudes, and actions that perpetuate the ideology that one racial or ethnic group is inherently superior. Individual racism is learned from and influenced by systemic racism and is rooted in the unequal distribution of power between white and racialized people.^{455 456}

Policies, practices, and dynamics embedded in established institutions (government, religion, education, organizations, etc.) that result in disadvantage or advancement of specific groups of people. These systemic practices normalize racism and may not be obvious.^{457 458}

Structural racism/systemic racism

Structural or systemic racism points to the bigger picture of history, society, culture, institutions, and the economy. Racialized people have been historically left out of the development of society and its systems, resulting in deeply entrenched disadvantages, barriers, and biases.^{459 460 461} Systemic racism is at the root of large-scale discrepancies between white and racialized people in many areas including income and wealth,⁴⁶² health outcomes,⁴⁶³ homelessness,⁴⁶⁴ unemployment,⁴⁶⁵ and involvement with the justice system.^{466 467}

Racist

An individual, institution, or organization that supports racism through policies, practices and actions that perpetuate discrimination towards people based on the membership of a racial group.⁴⁶⁸

Reverse racism

Discrimination, prejudice or intolerance directed towards members of dominant racial groups. Reverse racism is a myth: members of the dominant groups can experience individual racism however, they cannot be systemically oppressed due to the lack of social or institutional power needed by minority groups to oppress the dominant group.^{469 470 471}

White fragility

A state in which white people are unable to tolerate racial stress. White fragility presents in defensiveness or “defensive moves” such as arguing, silence, or leaving the situation. White fragility functions and is supported by white privilege.⁴⁷⁶

White passing

When a non-white person lacks certain physical characteristics tied to their racial or ethnic group in a way that makes them appear to be white. People who are white passing may experience privileges in society that someone with darker skin or other features would not experience. Being “white passing” may also cause someone to struggle with their identity.^{477 478}

White privilege

Unearned access, benefits, and opportunities white people are given in society due to the historical imbalance of power between white and racialized people.^{479 480}

White supremacy

The ideology that white people and their beliefs are superior to other races. Although not exclusively, white supremacy has been associated with extremist groups like the Ku Klux Klan and the neo-Nazis.^{481 482}

Aboriginal Peoples

An umbrella term used to describe the First Nations, Inuit, and Métis Peoples of Canada. Collectively recognized in the Constitution Act, 1982. Indigenous communities prefer the term First Nations or Indigenous Peoples over Aboriginal Peoples.⁴⁸⁴

Band

A self-governed Indigenous group with common cultural characteristics: traditions and practices, that had their lands set apart as defined in the Indian Act. A band may be referred to as a First Nation. There are over 600 recognized bands in Canada.^{485 486}

Band council/First Nation council

The governing body of a band or First Nation, including the Chief, who is elected according to the Indian Act or through other means determined by the band.^{487 488}

Bill C-31

The pre-legislation name of the 1985 Act to Amend the Indian Act. The bill aimed to eliminate all discriminatory provisions against Indigenous Peoples from the Indian act and had three goals: address gender inequality, restore Indian status, and pave a path for self-government.⁴⁸⁹

First Nation

Introduced in 1970 to identify the Indigenous Peoples that are not Inuit or Métis. First Nation replaced the label "Indian", which is considered offensive. In Canada, there are 52 First Nation cultures and over 50 languages.^{492 493}

First Peoples

An umbrella term referring to First Nations, Inuit or Métis Peoples.⁴⁹⁴

Indian

A term that was used to legally identify the Indigenous Peoples of Canada under the Indian Act. "Indian" should not be used unless required for clarity, in legal discussions around the Indian Act, or when referring to "Indian" status.⁴⁹⁵

Indian Act

A federal legislation that was passed in 1876 recognizing "Indians", their reserved lands, and the federal government's obligation to the Indigenous Peoples of Canada.⁴⁹⁶

Indian status

Indian status is the legal status of a person under the Indian Act.^{497 498}

Indigenous Peoples

An umbrella term that encompasses the First Nations, Inuit or Métis Peoples of Canada.⁵⁰³

Inuit

The Aboriginal Peoples of Northern Canada that reside in Nunavut, Northwest Territories, and northern parts of Labrador and Québec. There are also a small population of Inuit within Ontario. The word Inuit in the Inuit language directly translates to “the people”. Inuk refers to one person, and Inuuk to two. The word “Eskimo” was previously used to refer to Inuit but is considered derogatory.⁵⁰⁴

Métis Peoples

Broadly described as people with European and Indigenous ancestry, the Métis Peoples are recognized under the Indian Act as a distinct Nation in Canada.^{505 506} Officially, someone who is Métis “self-identifies as Métis, is distinct from other Aboriginal Peoples, is of historic Métis Nation ancestry, and is accepted by the Métis Nation”.⁵⁰⁷

Native

Refers to and is being replaced by Indigenous Peoples, as it may be considered offensive. The term may be used by those who self-identify as Native but should be avoided by non-Indigenous people.⁵⁰⁸
