

> CONSERVATION ENFORCEMENT BACHELOR OF APPLIED SCIENCE DEGREE

Ready to protect Canada's natural resources?

Build on your Natural Resource Compliance diploma and take your passion for protecting the land, wildlife and fisheries resources to the next level in the Conservation Enforcement – Bachelor of Applied Science program, the only degree of its kind in Canada. In two years, you'll develop the skills needed to deal with problem wildlife, investigate violations, enforce resource laws and so much more.

2

SEMESTERS YOU'LL SPEND WORKING IN THE LAKES, RIVERS, FIELDS AND MOUNTAINS DURING FIELD STUDIES

61

DISTRICTS IN THE PROVINCE WHERE FISH AND WILDLIFE OFFICERS WORK

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- CONSERVATION OFFICER
- ENVIRONMENTAL INVESTIGATOR/INSPECTOR
- FISH AND WILDLIFE OFFICER
- PARK WARDEN, RANGER OR PATROL OFFICER
- POLLUTION CONTROL OFFICER
- RESOURCE MANAGEMENT OFFICER
- WILDLIFE INVESTIGATOR

AVERAGE ANNUAL SALARY
OF A CONSERVATION OFFICER IN ALBERTA
SOURCE: ALIS.ALBERTA.CA/OCCINFO

> $71,932

APPLY TODAY AT
lethbridgecollege.ca/ce

> CONSERVATION ENFORCEMENT BACHELOR OF APPLIED SCIENCE DEGREE

- FOUR-YEAR APPLIED DEGREE
- SEPTEMBER ADMISSION
- * ACCURATE AT TIME OF PRINTING