

JUSTICE STUDIES - BACHELOR OF APPLIED ARTS

Ready to be the difference?

Expand your career opportunities by completing a Bachelor of Applied Arts. Building on your education, the Justice Studies degree provides further instruction in the areas of victimology, leadership, social justice, ethics and research methodologies. In your fourth year, you'll put that knowledge to the test completing a directed field study. Your degree will open doors in a wide variety of justice and social services careers.

840

MINIMUM NUMBER OF HOURS SPENT IN A
DIRECTED FIELD STUDY WITHIN A JUSTICE OR HUMAN SERVICES ORGANIZATION OR AGENCY

50+

YEARS OF DELIVERING INDUSTRY-TRUSTED
CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROGRAMMING

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- SUPERVISORS OR MANAGERS IN JUSTICE ORGANIZATIONS
- PROBATION OFFICERS
- PAROLE OFFICERS
- CASE WORKERS IN JUSTICE ORGANIZATIONS
- PROGRAM COORDINATORS FOR AT-RISK YOUTH
- VICTIMS' ASSISTANCE ADVISORS

AVERAGE ANNUAL SALARY
OF A COMMISSIONED POLICE OFFICER IN ALBERTA
SOURCE: ALIS.ALBERTA.CA/OCCINFO

$144,920

APPLY TODAY AT
lethbridgecollege.ca/justicestudiesdegree

JUSTICE STUDIES – BACHELOR OF APPLIED ARTS

- TWO-YEAR POST-DIPLOMA DEGREE
- SEPTEMBER, JANUARY OR MAY ADMISSION
- ACCURATE AT TIME OF PRINTING